Glades Historical Industries Necessity For Living Mothers

From sailboat deckhand to captain of Lake Okechobee fish and mail boats, construction worker, garage operator and the One and Only Chief and Builder of Belle Glade Fish Department, L. E. Will has mixed his 46 years of intimate knowledge of this area with a fluent ability to write down for posterity some of the early history of our community.

Coupled with this is a knack for research and an ability to select the newsworthy facts and appreciate the humor of once incidents.

The history of the Glades is the history of industry of its people and the people of its industry.

"With the government's withdrawal of its troops, the Seminoles to the west and the capture of the Indians by civilians were posted - $500 for a Buck, $200 for a deer and $100 for a turkey. That was a boon to many of the early settlers."

"The most successful industry, far from farming, in the Glades was cut-fishing. From the time of the Seminole war and the capture of the Indians by civilians were posted - $500 for a Buck, $200 for a deer and $100 for a turkey. That was a boon to many of the early settlers."

Elks Teen Center Most Successful

By Georgianna Mills
HI KIDS!
Well it sure is good to be a kid. The little ole cubs again for you all to read. Some of the exciting news that happened at the teen center is that Skipper Pickett has finally found him a girl friend. I don't know her name but she's from West Palm Beach and she's cute, they dance all the time together and they dance with not one girl, but every girl in the teen center, those lucky, lucky girls! Who was the little boy? Pat Webster and Cathy Clements were about to have a fit to lose 'em? Girls did you make it?

Our thanks to the chaperones who were there, we always appreciate them coming and giving us their valuable time. Did anyone notice the Bermuda shorts on all the kids? Cute, weren't they cool too?

Coach Hector Oullette, Red Cross swimming instructor will issue cards and certificates to about 283, following final tests Thursday morning and races Friday morning. Silver dollars will be awarded the champion swimmer to the boy and girl in the miles and a boy and girl in midgut groups.

Mrs. Genevieve Gove, whose arts and crafts program has been rated superior by county coordinator Jack Smith held an exhibition of the work accomplished during the six weeks past Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Ivan Van Horn, Mrs. George Farnall and Mrs. Heron Beck watching and presenting ribbons in the different categories which included copper tooling, rubber stamps, paper mache, modeling clay, sawdust machine, finger painting, string painting, blotto painting, cutout, raffia, pins and earrings made of felt and lanyards. ## Holland Urges Importance Of Domestic Fiber Program

22 Millions Paid Out In Jobs Benefits
Because of more workers covered the bill to $39 from the previous maximum of $26, the disastrous winter and added to by the national recession, Florida's payments to the jobs passed the $22 million mark for the year ending June 30th, according to James T. Voelke, Chairman of the Industrial Commission.

It is anticipated that an addition of 0.3 percent will be added to deductions this year, for the Trust Fund balance of $89.3 million will likely drop to below 4 percent of the taxable payroll.

$30 million in payments is expected for the current fiscal year, as the full effect of the winter will carry over into this year.

Mayor and Two Streamline Meet

Importance Of Domestic Fiber Program

The importance of a domestic fiber program in view of the conditions in the far east, at the door of the source on near half billion pounds of jute, is growing each day.

As long as manufacturers have declared recently several times that Kenaf is acceptable to them as a jute substitute, coupled with their offer to divert some 20 to 25 per cent of their normal use of jute, to kenaf, the urgency of a domestic source is all important.

Senator Spessard Holland told an RDB group Monday at his Hartow office that he has been keeping abreast of happenings on the kenaf research proposal.

and that his office is in the midst of a plan to get the funds provided in the supplemental budget.

The Senator's office is now attempting to secure a request from USDA for the item, or, at least, support for it at hearings before the appropriations committee, of which he is a member.

The statewide potential for the growing of kenaf, as well as the interest of all southern states, makes the likelihood of success more certain.

Red Mount, County Agent, Bernie Bessie of Loxahatchee Lamar Allen and Art Kyle of RDB, and Luther Jones of Belle Glade were the group calling on the Senator.

Mr. Frank E. Willshire, President of the Salicetate Jute Cane Co. and of the Soft Fiber Manufacturer's Association was present and reiterated the urgency of the fiber industry in Florida, especially Kenaf.

Statewide support for the Senator to Senator Holland is being secured by Emmett Roberts, who is Chairman of the (Continued on Page Eight)

More Polo Cases Reported In Fla.

Florida has 22 more cases of polo than for the same time last year, according to reports, and three quarters of a million folks under 40 failed to get the Salik shot.

The early hot weather in Florida, which is the time of year for polo is the cause of our early entrance into the "concern" period by doctors.

All children should have the polo shots.

More Beds For Vets Allocated

Congressman Paul G. Rogers stated he was glad the Administration has now agreed to allocate additional hospital beds for veterans in Florida. Congressman Rogers and the other members of the Florida Delegation had pointed up the acute need for some time.

Mr. Rogers said, "With a 500, 000 veteran population in Florida and only 1,320 VA beds, a ratio of about 380 veterans per each VA hospital bed, the need is critical. The ration of veterans per bed in the United States is approximately 183 to 1.
Also a very serious problem of the neurophysiatric patient is distressing when you realize the per bed ration of the United States is 396 to 1, and in Florida it is 3,882 to 1.
In response to the request of the Florida Delegation, the Administration advised the Florida delegation that 700 additional veterans hospital beds would be authorized for Florida, to be divided equally between Bay Pines and Coral Gables.
With this authorization the new hospital to be built at Coral Gables will have 800 beds instead of the present capacity of 450. Planning money for these facilities is included in the present budget with construction money to be requested later.
Mr. Rogers stated the approval of 700 additional beds would relieve the situation considerably.

More Than 500 Negro Children Participate In Summer Program

Swimming, baseball, softball and other outdoor play activities have been combined with woodwork, dough and clay modeling, as well as other manual crafts to engage the interest and enjoyment of some 500 Negro children in the area during the summer months.

The East Lake, Okeechobee Center and South Bay schools have each conducted programs which have seen high registrations and generally regular attendance.

The athletic and manual arts activities at Okeechobee Center have been augmented by a Bible School under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. William Boire, National Labor Relations Board's 12 Regional Office, Tampa, announced that the agency's Miami office has moved into new quarters located in Room 202, Twelfth Hundred Building, 1200 SW 1st St. Miami.

The NLBB administrators primarily the Labor Management Relations Act, commonly known as the Taft-Hartley Act, and is set up to prevent unfair labor practices and conduct representation elections.

NECESSITY FOR LIVING
was paid for the privilege of taking catfish from certain areas of the Lake.
"Large shipments of Lake Okeechobee catfish went to St.
Louis, where, we are reliably informed they became 'Alaskan caviar' to the gourmet relish of American gourmets."

"The settlements around the Lake were result of the fish camps settled by the families of these fishermen."
"Tastes now known as Okeebonee was named for the red-headed girl friend of one of the early fishermen; Updeshore Beach, Stuckey's Ditch, Bare Beach, Ritta and many others had their origin in the fishermen."

Lake Harbor came into existence for the purpose of housing trainloads of northern and midwestern prospects for the land sales made in the early days. The Boies Hotel at Lake Harbor and Fisher's on the south end of Ritta Island existence for that purpose.

"It was the wives of these fishermen who discovered the productivity of the land around the Lake, for they planted vegetable and flower seed. Sugarcane was introduced into this area in the same way by a three-pointed stalk of sugarcane planted for 'chevins'."

"There's one industry, not commonly associated with church-going folks, but nevertheless of a substantial proportion for those days and times — moonshine. The custard apple willow and elder forests just behind the lake-shore communities and farms afforded sufficient shelter to permit the inhabitants to grow the 'chevins' cane along the shores and brew the drink back in the thickets."

"Also during prohibition the Lake was a convenience to airborne 'leggers' for landing imported alcohol stimulants from the Islands to our east."

"There was a period when hogs roamed in large groups through the undeveloped lands around here and hog hunting was a popular sport and food source. Razor-backs were crossed with improved strains by the Indians and other early inhabitants and were allowed to roam wherever they chose. Consequently ownership was mixed and doubtful, as to individuals."

"Hog-hunting was a recognized avocation and was popularly practiced."

"So we see that 'industry' has a long and useful record in the Glades, and our evolution to present-day worldwide recognition in three fields — winter vegetables, cane sugar and catfish — a half century of background. As in most pioneering communities some of our historical record of 'industry' wouldn't receive the plausibility of a convention of Buthops."

Home of the giant Eglin Air Force Training Field, Okaloosa County was created in 1915. Once Indian territory, many Indian burial mounds and other traces of early Indian occupation have been found here. The very name Okaloosa comes from the Choctaw language meaning "black water." Except for timber cutting, the scene barely remains untouched in the county's interior, with the tourist trade found only on the coastal beaches.

In progressive Okaloosa County, and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to assure the sale of beer and ale under orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforce-the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed continuing "self-regulation" program.

Glade Sunday, July 27th, celebrate Holy Communion the regular scheduled 9 a.m. service. This was announced by the vicar of St. John the Apostle, The Reverend Robert Huffman.

Father Petrie visits St. John the Apostle regularly on the second and fourth Sundays each month for sacramental purposes; however, Sunday visit will be his last for a while since he will be away on vacation during the month of August. Arrangements for the Sacrament of Holy Communion during his absence in August will be made, and will be announced at a later date.

On Thursday morning Eld. Gerald Griner of Miami brought the devotion and reports from all churches were heard and a mission sermon by Rev. B. Carpenter of Ft. Waldon. In the afternoon a discussion of extending mission work in other fields was held. A announcement was made of next year's meeting in July at the Ardella Church at Lakeland.

• Fulfillment of Jesus' promise "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:32) is a present-day possibility. This is a theme to be brought out in Christian Science services Sunday.

• Scriptural texts and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Truth."

• Among the selections from Science and Health will be read the following (312:17-18; 24-26): "Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth."

The Psalmist makes this point of faith as he is in the midst of dangerous circumstance. He is surrounded by enemies who he describes as "lions" and "those that are set on fire." Yet, in the midst of this fierce ordeal, the Psalmist's faith is equal to the occasion by complete trust and assurance of God's help; so much so, that his heart is "fixed" (upon God) and he encourages himself by singing praises to God.

The Psalmist's faith is equal to the occasion, yes, only so because in his stormy moments, he had built up

As a part of the special youth activities week to be held at the Community Metho Church July 27 through August 1, a special class for training adults who want to understand the needs of youth better will be offered. Adults interested should come to Jameson Hall 7:30 and from there they will be directed to the room assigned. The class will be under the direction of Miss Virginia Souter, pastor of the church. The class is open to all Adult Workers with youth, parents, or any others interested in understanding youth better.

County Agent Has Information On Moving Cattle From Quarantine

Information concerning procedure for simplifying movement of livestock out of the recently established screwworm quarantine area of Florida is being supplied this week to livestock owners by county inspectors in all counties now under quarantine.

The quarantine, which the Florida Livestock Board ordered into effect May 1, 1958, includes 32 counties and embraces all of that portion of the state lying south of State Highway No. 40 and including that portion of Marion County lying within the city limits of Ocala.

Any livestock or other animals subject to screwworm infestation may be moved out of the quarantine area if accompanied by a certificate of inspection and necessary treatment by a duly authorized representative of the Livestock Board. Otherwise, all shipments must be routed through a central quarantine station, at Ocala where they will be inspected and treated if necessary before being allowed to proceed into unquarantined territory.

The quarantine is one phase of the combined state-federal Screwworm Eradication Program, and is designed to hold any of the over-wintering pests.

to the southern part of the state until the program gets into full operation about mid-summer.

Quarantine enforcement is being conducted through a 24-hourly patrol of roads crossing State Highway No. 40 by a staff of 34 livestock inspectors. In the meantime, livestock owners in every Florida county are being urged to continue their vigilance in spotting, treating, and quickly reporting any suspected screwworm cases to their county agent or livestock inspector.

Strongly urged, also, are preventative measures by prompt treatment of all wounds or cuts with application of approved remedies, such as EQ-33 or Smeat 82, and keeping animals under observation until wounds are healed.

Suspected screwworm eggs or maggots should NOT be destroyed, but should be carefully collected and held for the inspector to pick up and report to the proper authorities. Egg masses should be placed in a closed container, such as a pint fruit jar, on a piece of damp paper, and maggots should be placed in a similar jar half full of clean tap water. Both jars should be kept in a cool place until the inspector calls for them.

"We need you and you need us," the new commander said. "Let's all work for freedom, democracy, justice and loyalty. We must learn the principles and symbols of our American Legion."

Don't Spoil Your Vacation Fun

The Florida Highway Patrol today appealed to motorists: "Don't let hurry spoil your vacation."

Taking sight of the fact that a majority of all accidents can be attributed to speed and haste, the patrol cautions that many a vacation which starts off as a funfest will end up as a tragedy unless precautions are taken.

"There is a great need for adequate planning for any trip, and especially for the vacation drive," declared Comdr. H. N. Kirkman, an experienced driver.

"People look forward all year to a pleasant two or three weeks trip, save their money and plan just what they want to see, and where they want to see it, without giving a second thought to proper road routes, traffic conditions, or the travel time element involved," he declared.

"The family that drives to stay alive, must recognize certain needs and then fill them. Don't leave in a hurry. Plan plenty of time to go and return. Check to see that the family car is in tip top order.
